

NEW ART & MUSIC CONCERTS IN 2026

Art & Music at the Guggenheim Museum Bilbao

The Museum announces the new spring edition of the Art & Music series for 2026—an exclusive format that brings together live music, architecture, and contemporary art in the iconic setting of the Museum’s Atrium. The series reaffirms its mission to connect disciplines and emotions through one-of-a-kind experiences and once again enjoys the support of its sponsor, Kutxabank.

Madrid-based artist pablopablo will open the programme on Saturday, March 14. He has established himself as one of the most distinctive voices in new Spanish pop thanks to an elegant and deeply emotional sound. He will be followed on Saturday, April 11 by living legends of desert blues Tinariwen. The series will conclude on Saturday, May 9 with Lewis OfMan, a leading figure in French electronic pop whose hedonistic yet melancholic sound has made him one of the standout names of his generation.

Art & Music ticket-holders are invited to visit the exhibitions in small groups from 8:30 pm, prior to the concerts starting at 10:00 pm, and to enjoy the bar service set up in the Atrium, offering drinks and pintxos (consumptions not included in the ticket price).

Ticket prices for pablopablo are €27 for Museum Friends and €30 for the general public. For Tinariwen and Lewis OfMan, tickets are priced at €31.50 for Museum Friends and €35 for the general public. Tickets can be booked via the Activities section of the Museum's website.

Pre-sale for Museum Friends begins on December 18 at 10:00 am, with general sales opening on December 19 at 10:00 am.
